Continue activities following the story – The Fox Announces Peace

By: Levin Kipnis
Illustrations: Reut Bortz
הוֹצָאָה: מודן
Age Group: Second Grade

שִׂיחָה

A discussion on who is wisest

Perhaps you would enjoy discussing and sharing the following: What do you think makes a person wise? Can you think of an incident in which someone behaved wisely? Was the fox wise, or the rooster? Perhaps they bother were? Or maybe neither one was?

סִרְטוֹנִים

Five facts about Levin Kipnis

What did Levin Kipnis do when he was growing up? What did he have to do with comics? Go ahead and scan the QR code, and watch the video to find out.

מִשְׂחָק

A game of "What actually happened?"

Having read this book together, you, parents, may want to tell a story, and ask the others to decide whether the story you've told actually happened or was a work of fiction. Next, ask your children to share their own stories. This may be a good opportunity to share unusual incidents with one another, and laugh together.

שִׂיחָה

Ram-Kol and other names

What does the name Ram-Kol (Loud-Speaker) tell us about the rooster? Can you come up with names for yourselves that reflect a special, good quality that characterizes you? Perhaps the rest of your family can help!

הַשְׁרָאָה

Pinterest

You can find options for crafts based on the book on the Pajama Library page on Pinterest.

www.pjisrael.org More activities on the Pajama Library website