קְרִיאָה

A discussion on what has been lost

Have you ever lost anything you found important? How did you feel and what did you do? Perhaps you've found someone else's lost item... This book invites children as well as parents to share their childhood experiences of losing and finding lost items.

Shabi and Uzza from the Israeli children's television show Parpar Nechmad are also returning lost items to their owners. Scan the code to watch the video.

מִשְׂחָק

A game of hiding and seeking

Pick an item and take turns hiding it and having the other players look for it. You can help each other by giving clues such as “hot and cold” or a treasure map. Did you find it? Now it’s someone else’s turn – hide, search and find.

Searching through the illustrations

There are lost ads on the first few pages of the book. You may enjoy looking for amusing and surprising ones together to share with the rest of your family. Among them is one found ad – are you able to locate it?
