A discussion on choosing and investing

You may want to discuss Cyril and Tevye's choice: Why do you think they chose not to use all the gold? Did that surprise you? Why, in your opinion, did they decide to invest the gold in schooling?

Illustrations – Where is the goat?

The goat is by Cyril and Tevye's side throughout the book. You may enjoy looking for the goat in the illustrations: What is it doing? What is its connection to the family? How about trying to tell the story from the goat's point of view? What happens to it as the book progresses?

A game of treasure hunt

Gather several small gifts that you would like to give your family: A drawing, greeting card, or item. Take turns hiding your gifts and having the rest of your family look for the treasure using clues: "Near and far", "hot and cold", or arrows placed around the house.
