Reading Together

Do you also have little friends visiting your home? Are they imaginary friends, or maybe a beloved doll? It is worthwhile to talk about it with the toddlers and hear what do they like doing with the little friend. You can “bring in” the little friend to join and read the story.

How to Read the Story?

The story is slightly longer than usual, and in order to arouse interest and curiosity it is recommended telling it in a variety of voices: a voice for Dad, a voice for Yaeli and a different voice for Mom and for Elik Belik. You can look together at the illustrations and invite the toddlers to participate in the identification of details and repeat the words “Elik Belik”.

Hide and Seek

Where's the doll? On the table? maybe underneath it? And where's the ball? You can hide various objects, look for them and then say: "The ball is on the chair", "The ball is under the bed". You can also hide yourselves and look for each other.

From Small to Big

Dad has big shoes, Mom's shoes – they are less big, Yaeli has little shoes, and Elik Belik's? Tiny shoes! Go on a journey throughout the house, collect items of the same type and arrange them from the smallest to the biggest.
