קְרִיאָה

Reading and hugging
While reading a story, you can hug each time a new animal joins the group. You can also play the hugging game: move away from each other, count "three, four," and then run to each other, and hug!

שִׂיחָה

It's crowded but that doesn't matter!
Invite the rest of the family to sit together with you on the couch, on the carpet or on a mattress. You can also include dolls or pets. Sit close together, then further away, and check: how pleasant is the closeness?

מִשְׂחָק

What sound do I make?

How does a dog bark? How does a cat meow? and how does a cow moo? – Toddlers can join can join in to the animals in the story.

Would you like to bring another animal in? And what sound would that animal make?

סִרְטוֹנִים

Sing about cabbage

"I sat on a cabbage" is a song that you can sing, add movements to, dance to and clap your hands to.

The song will upload when you scan the code:
