קְרִיאָה

Reading, Singing and Moving
Let the toddler complete the repeating sentence: "Where to, where to? To kindergarten!"

You can add movements, clap hands or use musical instruments.

הַמְחָשָׁה

Our Morning Ritual
A fixed set of morning actions helps toddlers start the day well:

Prepare the clothes together, sing an encouraging song, collect leaves or a twig along the way, or say goodbye with a fixed, encouraging greeting.

יְצִירָה

Illustrations "Tell a Tale"

Look together and let the toddler find: Where is the bird? Is it on additional pages? Who accompanies the child to kindergarten? How do we get to kindergarten – by bicycle, walking or some other way? Who wears a hat and where is the dog?

Look at the last page and ask: “What are the children in kindergarten doing? What do you like to do at the nursery?”

מִשְׂחָק

Game: Where to?

Ask: Where to, where to? And each time choose a different place: To... The bath, the balcony, or to... The playground? Go together to the place you’ve chosen, hug each other and then say aloud: Where to, where to? To... the next place!
