Continue activities following the story – The Key to My Heart

By: Nira Harel
Illustrations: Yossi Abulafia
הוֹצָאָה: זברה
Age Group: Preschool (4–6)

שִׂיחָה

With an open heart

Following Yonatan, you can discuss and share: What can be the meaning of the phrase: “to open up your heart”? Is there an image or item that reminds you of loved ones, and make you feel like your heart is opening up and your feelings are welling up?

שְׁמַע

QR code

Would you like to listen to The Key to My Heart? Scan the code and you can listen to this book together

מִשְׂחָק

Where have I been and what have I been up to?

Thanks to the lost keys, Yonatan gets a glimpse into his father's daily routine. And what did you do today? You can play charades, miming to one another a place you have visited or something you have done. Take turns acting out a place or action, while the rest of your family tries to guess where you have been and what you have been up to.

חֵקֶר

Details in the illustrations

Yossi Abulafia's illustrations are full of details. You may want to stop and look: Which animals can you find in the illustrations? Do they appear more than once? What are the people on the street up to? And now, look at the illustrations again: Have you discovered anything that you did not seen the first time?

הַשְׁרָאָה

Pinterest

[More arts & crafts, songs and activities can be found on the Sifriyat Pijama Pinterest page]

[www.pjisrael.org] More activities on the Pajama Library website