By which to remember where you came from

After reading this book, you can discuss the importance of family. Share memories of intimate and special moments shared with grandparents. You can discuss your family's roots, cuisine, and culture, as well as any heirlooms and items that are passed in your family.

יְצִירָה

My Own Special Reminder

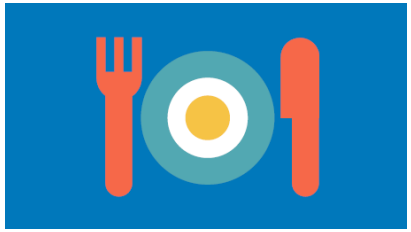

Do you also want to have an item to remember things by and help you overcome difficulty and loss? You can use beads to make a necklace or bracelet, paint a pebble, or any other good idea, and then decide what to do with this it to be reminded of something or cheer up: Twist it? Squeeze it? Stroke it? Move it to your other hand?
